

February 2022 Fundamental Leader of the Month – Chris Eveleigh

For the month of February, Construction Owners Association of Alberta \(COAA\) FLIC would like to feature Chris Eveleigh. Chris is the Manager, Special Projects with PCL Construction Industrial Management Inc. group of independent general contracting construction companies in Canada, the United States, Australia and the Caribbean.

Chris has more than 20 years in the construction industry, 13 of which with PCL, and has been involved in some of PCL's largest projects. Joining the Industrial Special Projects team in 2018, Chris has overseen the continued expansion of PCL's relationship with oil and gas owners and deepened relationships in the mining and forestry sectors. In January 2022, Chris was promoted to manager, Special Projects and has continued to bring vision and leadership to the success of his team.

In 2019, Chris attended PCL's internal Leadership Academy and was awarded the Ross Grieve Excellence in Leadership Award (the academy's highest honor) and made valedictorian. Currently, Chris is a committed mentor in the Mentoring for Success program, exclusive to members of the United Way's Sponsored Campaign Representative program and sits as an active member of the United Way Cabinet for the Alberta Capital Region. Chris passionately devotes his time and energy to cultivating and growing future leaders at PCL as well as the wider community. He gives guidance to those who push themselves to be their best version of themselves.
